Miners from the town of Pocahontas blazed a trail to Miette Hot Springs and built the first log pools in 1919. Today, the 17-km road is the ultimate place for sightseeing and wildlife viewing.

- 1 Start your day at the Pocahontas Cabins. Walk the 20-minute Pocahontas Mine Trail to a long-lost coal mine.
- 2 Admire the canyon at Punch Bowl Falls.
- 3 Keep your camera handy—wildlife may surprise you along the 17-km drive to the hot springs.
- 4 Marvel at the massive wall of limestone and take in the scenery from Ashlar Ridge Viewpoint, just 8.5 km up the road.
- 5 Hungry? Bring coals for a BBQ at the hot springs picnic area or have a tasty meal at the Fiddle Valley Cafe.
- 6 Discover how hot springs are formed and touch Miette's source on a gentle stroll along the Source of the Springs Trail. Or get your heart beating and enjoy breathtaking panoramas of the Fiddle Valley on the Sulphur Skyline Trail (8-km return trip).
- 7 Top off your day with a marvellous soak in Miette Hot Springs!
